LIVESTOCK POLICY
If the livestock that we ship (caterpillars, plants) do not all arrive alive (they must all be dead), we will replace or credit your account. You must notify us by phone or email within 24 hours that your livestock did not arrive alive. Please include your name, preferred ship-to address (Office/PO box), the date you received the livestock shipment, butterfly certificate number, invoice number, where you purchased the kit, along with a detailed description of larvae, artificial diet, date postmarked, and condition of shipping box. After this 24-hour period, we reserve the right to deny your request for livestock replacement or credit We do not guarantee livestock survival after you have received your shipment because livestock, especially monarch caterpillars, require specialized care to ensure their survival to adult butterflies. Replacement larvae are sent out on a case by case basis. We offer free larvae with the purchase of a milkweed plant for customers who have had problems rearing monarch larvae. In Nature, a very small percent of monarch caterpillars reach adulthood due to natural diseases and predation. If the instructions included with your kit are carefully followed, half of your larvae should become beautiful butterflies. Should you have any rearing questions, online technical service is available from 6:00am to 10:00pm CST.

ORDERING LIVE MATERIAL VS. CERTIFICATES:

Our live kits can be ordered with livestock now (ASAP) or with certificates that can be mailed for the live material at a later time. We are not responsible for live material left unattended. Certificates cannot be returned by fax or phone. We are not responsible for lost certificates. Livestock orders are shipped FOB Houston.
